We're still here.

We encourage you to submit questions about current guidance and any spring concerns to allow the Institute to better understand international student questions and needs during this time.

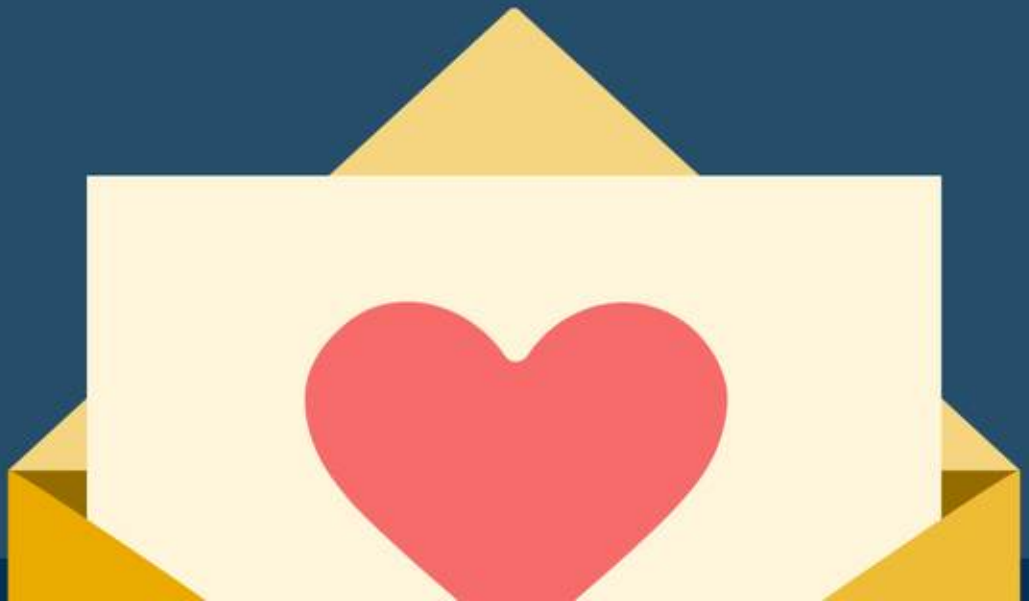

Please see link in our bio.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT
GRADUATES!
We've made a little graduation commemoration gift just for you!
(See link in our bio for your digital gift)

To all of the new students, student volunteers, and campus partners who were a part of our first all virtual International Student Orientation, we'd like to say...

Thank you!

We are grateful to you all and feel encouraged as we approach the start of the fall semster.
Go Yellow Jackets!
